

Denine Rogers, MS, RDN, LD, FAND - Owner of Living Healthy

3400 Chapel Hill Road
Suite 100-17
Douglasville, Georgia 30135
Phone#: 678-741-5338

Website: www.livinghealthy1.org
Email: consulting@livinghealthy1.org

Member and Fellow of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Affiliations:

Denine Rogers, MS, RDN, LD, FAND is affiliated with:

- Academy of Nutrition and Dietetic (Formerly known as the American Dietetic Association)
- African American Committee of Interest Group
- American Association of Diabetes Educators
- American Herbalist Guild
- Dietitians Integrative and Functional Medicine (DIFM)
- Douglas County – Georgia Master Gardeners - Volunteer
- Douglas County Chamber of Commerce
- Fellow of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (FAND)
- Georgia Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- Georgia Dietetic Association
- Georgia Herbalist Guild
- Greater Atlanta Association of Diabetes Educator
- Greater Atlanta Dietetic Association
- Hunger and Environmental Nutrition Group (HEN)
- National Organization of Blacks in Dietetics and Nutrition (NOBIDAN)
- National Women in Agriculture Association (NWIAA) - Greater Carroll County Chapter
- Nutrition Entrepreneurs (NE)
- Pride - Anthem's African American Associate Resource Group
- Toastmasters - Competent Communicator Toastmaster Speaker
- Women of WellPoint Associate Resource Group (WOW)

Dietitians in Integrative and Functional Medicine
a dietetic practice group of the Academy of Nutrition
and Dietetics

National Organization of Blacks in Dietetics and Nutrition
a member interest group of the Academy of Nutrition
and Dietetics

Experiences:

Her experiences consists of:

- Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation - "Be a Hero". (She was selected in a video campaign and has written articles for the Kids Eat Right Program. She also served as a Kids Eat Right RD Volunteer.)
- Chairperson for the African American Committee of Interest Group of the American Association of Diabetes Educators
- Committee Chair and Newsletter Editor of NOBIDAN
- Competent Communicator
- Cultural Diversity Workplace Ambassador at a Prestigious Healthcare Management Company
- Diabetes Nutritional Specialist
- Diversity Leader of the Georgia Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- FACE for Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics for 2012-2013 (Marketing Campaign –Video and Pictorial)
- Holistic Chef for Animals
- Holistic Health Practitioner
- Integrative Registered Dietitian Nutritionist
- Master Gardener (Volunteer)
- Master Herbalist
- Nutritional Consultant Speaker for Abbott Nutrition on the Subject of Malnutrition to Public Policy Makers, Government Officials, and Healthcare Professionals.
- Registered Dietitian Nutritionist Consultant for Kids Eat Right and Fuel Up to Play
- Secretary for NOBIDAN
- Student Ambassador for American College of Health Sciences (ACHS)
- Toastmaster Speaker and Volunteer
- Wellness and Certified Health Coach

Denine Rogers, MS, RDN, LD, FAND

Denine Rogers, MS, RDN, LD, FAND, is an Integrative Registered Licensed Dietitian Nutritionist, and owner of Living Healthy which is a unique nutrition, health, and wellness consulting business in Douglasville, Georgia in Douglas County. Denine has been a wellness food and nutritional lifestyle management consultant for over the past 15 years to food service companies, hospitals, federal government programs, educational institutions, corporations, small businesses and healthcare facilities. She is a fellow of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, received her Bachelor's Degree in Clinical Nutrition from Howard University and has recently graduated with honors a Masters Degree in Complementary and Alternative Medicine and the graduate certificate in Herbal Medicine at American College of Health Sciences. She is also a member of Delta Epsilon Tau International Honor Society. Denine works full-time as a Telemedicine Nutritional Consultant with Anthem where she currently doing a Facebook Live presentation on Health Equity in the African American Population. She has also completed her work as a Nutritional Consultant Speaker for Abbott Nutrition about Malnutrition, Gerontology Nutrition, Health Disparities, Women, Minorities and the African American Nutritional Communities. These presentations were to key opinion leaders and stakeholders in Washington, DC and at select legislative and policy conferences. Denine is currently working part-time as a preceptor for Life University and is a Contributing Writer the Stone Soup Blogger. She is an Alumni Ambassador for American College of Healthcare Sciences (ACHS) and a member of the American Herbal Guild and Georgia Herbal Guild. Denine is a Volunteer Master Gardener in the State of Georgia where she has been able to work and teach about herbs, gardening, and nutrition to the Douglas County local communities, schools, social and civic groups. She also volunteers in the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics as Secretary of Dietitians of Integrative and Functional Medicine (DIFM), Second Century Liaison of National Organization of Blacks in Dietetics and Nutrition (NOBIDAN), part of the Diversity Committee for the Georgia Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (GADA) and a member of the Asian Indian in Nutrition and Dietetics (AIND). In 2017, Ms. Rogers is collaborating with Today's Dietitian Magazine in writing articles and doing a webinar in Complementary Alternative Medicine, Integrative Nutrition, Aromatherapy, and Herbal Medicine.